

Start Your Career as a Travel Companion

Join Us In-Person in Minneapolis
September 15th & 16th, 2023

Sponsored By:

CERTIFIED SENIOR
TRAVALZ COMPANIONS

Travel companions are in demand as the market grows for senior and disabled adults who require assistance for traveling. This 2-day interactive program provides detailed training to a variety of professionals interested in starting a business or working as a travel companion. Participants will gain knowledge and skills to assess, plan and execute travel to meet the unique needs of a variety of clients with travel challenges.

Participants Will Walk Away With:

- Business strategies to create your own travel companion company
- Abilities to assess and mitigate possible health and behavioral challenges during travel
- Approaches to maintain client safety and comfort throughout travel
- Tactics to plan, problem-solve and orchestrate a variety of travel scenarios

Who Should Attend:

- Individuals with health or social service backgrounds serving older adults
- Travel savvy individuals with excellent interpersonal skills

When/Where:

Friday, September 15th - 8:00am-5:00pm CST

Saturday, September 16th - 7:30am-3:30pm CST

Minneapolis St. Paul Airport (MSP) - Metropolitan Room

What's Included:

- Lectures, handouts, forms, "Travel Well" book, travel tools to get your business started
- Ongoing mentoring following training
- Listed as a Certified Senior TravALZ Companion to website

Cost: Early bird rate $1,500 before August 15. $1,800 thereafter.

- Inclusive of all training, materials, breakfast and lunch both days, and mentoring to completion of an actual trip and certification.

For more information, please visit: CertifiedSeniorTravALZCompanions.com

Your Faculty, The Partners of Certified Senior TravALZ Companions:

Carol Giuliani

President,
Senior Travel Companion Services, LLC
SeniorTravelCompanionServices.com

Jan Dougherty, MS, RN, FAAN
President, TravALZ, LLC
Older Adult/Dementia Care Expert
Trav-ALZ.com