

ALIDALEE GINGERICH, RN, BSN

CERTIFIED SENIOR
TRAVELZ COMPANIONS

BIO

Hello. My name is AlidaLee Gingerich RN, BSN and I am the owner of Quality Care Travel Companion LLC, which provides customized trip planning and travel companion for individual and couples with or without medical needs.

I hold a RN, BSN degree since 1990 and have worked in many critical care departments and even a project manager within the hospital setting. I have worked with many type of patients from those affected by stoke, dementia, head or spine injuries, and cardiovascular issue. I also managed other businesses (with my husband) from house rentals to running a RV & campground resort. We proudly raised 2 children.

I love photography and to travel. I have planned many trips by air and car, all over the world. I have a clean background check and am insured for appropriate liability insurance. All nursing license requirements are up to date plus BLS (basic life support). References can be provided on request.
