

AMANDA SMITH

CERTIFIED SENIOR TRAVEL COMPANIONS

BIO

Amanda, the founder of Adventures with Ducki, is dedicated to fostering meaningful experiences & connections. She works with male and female individuals and groups to curate customized trips that are both safe and enjoyable. Amanda has a medical background and a passion for travel. She has experience working with seniors and young adults with a range of physical disabilities as well as Traumatic Brain Injury, dementia, and more. She enjoys the challenges of specialized trips that may require extra planning for those with medical issues. Amanda is available for extended trips as well as bucket list trips, weekend vacations, relocations, and personal events. She can accommodate road trips and cruises in addition to flight-based travel domestically and internationally. Located in the Minnesota Twin Cities area, she is able to travel from any starting point offering door-to-door service or can meet you along the way.

Life happens, and at Adventures with Ducki, Amanda believes your circumstances don't define you—they inspire new possibilities. No matter where you're starting from, we'll adapt and tailor the experience to fit your unique capabilities and needs. Together, we'll meet you where you are and turn your dreams into unforgettable adventures. Let's make it happen!
