

ELIZABETH PAUL, RN, BSN

CERTIFIED SENIOR
TRAVELZ COMPANIONS

BIO

Liz is a registered nurse and owner of Senior Air Travel Companion, LLC.

She spent her medical career in hospitals caring for patients at the bedside and educating their family members. Liz has also specialized in IV Therapy with major focus on acute care in Adult Intensive Care Units caring for those with medical, surgical, and neurological issues. Liz maintains her New Jersey RN license and CPR certification. She enjoys caring for the needs of others, especially seniors and those with disabilities.

Interests include travel, history, golf, music, as well as volunteering at LPGA golf events and volunteering with Traveler's Aid at Newark Airport.

Liz can provide assistance for domestic and international travel, navigating busy airports like Newark Liberty, JFK, LaGuardia and others. This will provide the peace of mind and individualized assistance you desire in planning a trip for your loved one, by easing the airport aspect, providing pleasant companionship on the airplane, and assistance to their final destination.
