

Start Your Career as a Travel Companion

Join Us Virtually on
January 20th & 21st, 2023

Sponsored By:

CERTIFIED SENIOR
TRAVALZ COMPANIONS

Companions are needed more than ever to meet the growing demand for seniors and the disabled who require assistance to make travel possible. This first of a kind 2-day interactive program provides detailed training to a variety of professionals to have the knowledge and skills to assess, plan and execute travel to meet the unique needs of a variety of older adult clients and those with travel challenges.

Participants Will Walk Away With:

- Business strategies to create your own travel companion company
- Abilities to assess and mitigate possible health and behavioral challenges during travel
- Approaches to maintain client safety and comfort throughout travel
- Tactics to plan, problem-solve and orchestrate a variety of travel scenarios

Who Should Attend:

- Individuals with health or social service backgrounds serving older adults
- Travel savvy individuals with excellent interpersonal skills

When/Where:

Friday, January 20th & Saturday, January 21st, 2023
8:00am – 4:00pm CST
Virtual Program Event

What's Included:

- Lectures, handouts, "Travel Well" book, travel tools to get your business started
- Ongoing mentoring following training
- Listed as a Certified Senior TravALZ Companion to website

Cost: Price of $1,100. Inclusive of all training and mentoring to completion of an actual trip and certification

For more information, please visit: CertifiedSeniorTravALZCompanions.com

Your Faculty, The Partners of Certified Senior TravALZ Companions:

Carol Giuliani
President,
Senior Travel Companion Services, LLC
SeniorTravelCompanionServices.com

Jan Dougherty, MS, RN, FAAN
President, TravALZ, LLC
Older Adult/Dementia Care Expert
Trav-ALZ.com